This spacious property is located a stone's throw from the centre of Dolores, on a large plot that gives you a wonderful feeling of privacy and tranquillity.

Dolores is a typical Spanish village, equipped with all daily necessities. It is known for its cosy village square with various bars, restaurants and speciality shops. This charming village also has a weekly market, numerous festivals and many other attractions. Thanks to its central location, you can quickly reach the airport, numerous other towns, golf courses, shopping centres and, of course, the many beautiful sandy beaches that the region has to offer.

There is no shortage of space in this beautiful property!
